Support the arts, volunteer as a Docent

Stuart, FL, November 11, 2011 – The Arts Council is looking for volunteers to contribute their time and talents to help at the Court House Cultural Center in historic downtown Stuart. The Cultural Center exhibits run from 6 to 8 weeks, ongoing throughout the year. The next exhibit, The NEW, begins on December 9, and runs through February 3. Volunteers greet and make visitors and residents feel welcome to the historical building to view artwork in the gallery. Morning and afternoon shifts are available.

For more information on how to support the arts and volunteer as a Docent at the Court House Cultural Center, please visit www.martinarts.org or call the Arts Council at 772-287-6676 x11. To see a listing of other volunteer positions on the website, to so Support Us/Volunteers.

The Arts Council Inc. serving Stuart and Martin County is a 501(c)3 non-profit membership organization that supports the arts and artists. Revenues from events benefit both the artists and the Arts Council to support the on-going programs of the Council including arts information activities, arts education programs for youth and support for artists and arts organizations. The Arts Council is located in the historic Court House Cultural Center at 80 E. Ocean Boulevard, Stuart, Florida.

The Arts Council is sponsored in part by the Florida Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs, the Florida Arts Council, City of Stuart, Martin County Board of County Commissioners, and private contributions.
