April 24, 2013, Stuart, Florida: The Arts Council of Martin County is proud to present the 27th Annual Marvin S. Cone High School Juried Art Show by Martin County high school students in May.

The Marvin S. Cone 27th Annual High School Juried Art Show recognizes the artistic talents of our high school students with an Awards Reception on Friday, May 3, 2013 at the Court House Cultural Center Galleries. This inspiring exhibition features artwork by students from Martin County, South Fork, and Jensen Beach High Schools, The Pine School, and Clark Advanced Learning Center. Their teachers, parents, school officials and sponsors of the event will be present for the awards presentation. The high school student artwork will continue at the Court House Cultural Center through May 30. Judges for the show are Karen Nobel and Jerry Dobrick.

“For the past 27 years the Arts Council has supported the High School Juried Art Show featuring the best and brightest students in our schools as a means to encourage their pursuit of creativity and the fine arts,” stated Nancy K. Turrell, Arts Council Executive Director.

The art teachers at each school select each piece of artwork for entry in the exhibit. It is a highly competitive process; the categories for cash awards include photography/digital prints, painting, sculpture, mixed media/assemblage, and drawing. Additionally each high school principal and the School Superintendent, Lauri Gaylord, select pieces to purchase that become a part of a permanent collection at their respective high schools and the Superintendent’s office. The Elliott Museum, the Supervisor of Elections, the Children’s Services Council, and Senator Joe Negron’s office will make purchase awards.

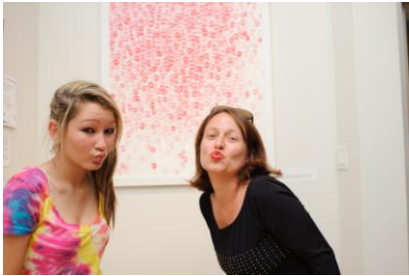

The Court House Cultural Center gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., and Saturday hours, 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 pm starting May 4. The sponsors for the student exhibition are Publix Super Markets Charities; Fox, Wackeen, Dungey, Beard, Bush, Goldman, Kilbride, Waters &
