2022-23 Season exhibits

Details and write ups for upcoming exhibits needed to fill in attached document for approval by the Council Board in July. Once created we can use in marketing through online calendar listings, a season brochure, etc. If you have signed on to chair an exhibit, please take a few minutes to determine the details. Here are a few things to consider:

- Title
- Exhibit description/concept
- Invite only or open call to artists
- How many artists?
- subject matter
- mediums – open to all or limited to a few

Suggestions submitted by Rickie:

K-8 Student Exhibit: featuring artwork from local elementary and middle school students.

Title: Our Artists Of The Future

Description: Celebrating the visual arts creativity of our local elementary and middle school students. What artworks will be featured in future exhibits and who will be the next Picasso?

Black & White: TBD

Title: Life Is Black And White And Shades Between

Description: This exhibit celebrates all media with few hues (Suggest this be a Call to artists in all media)

Realism: TBD

Title: Let's Get REAL!

Description: Artists take a realistic view of our world, from vehicles to vegetables (I want to say "vittles" but it sounds too "Beverly Hillbillies")

Suggestion: We have a strong pool of artists to curate this exhibit rather than have it as an Open Call (see my list I gave you previously)

Abstract: TBD

Title: So That's How I see It!

Description: Abstract art is often misunderstood, makes the viewer uncomfortable, and hard to discern. This exhibit will take the mystery out of the equation and offer viewers a better grasp of its history and concepts.

Suggestion: We have a strong pool of artists to curate this exhibit rather than have it as an Open Call (see my list I gave you previously)

Found a call to artist site:

Description #2: An invitational exhibition of Florida artists representing a variety of approaches to abstract painting and sculptural works. Exhibit will feature abstract artwork, non-figurative artwork, non-objective artwork, and/or non-representational artwork in a variety of styles and mediums.
