ABOUT THE ARTS COUNCIL

Welcome to the Arts Council Team...

The Fall brought some change to the Arts Council in an effort to be more supportive of our diverse arts community.

The management of ArtsFest, our annual arts festival and fund raising event, is back in house, with Clint Starling as Events & Sponsorship Manager. He will be working year-round to cultivate our events, social media and sponsorship support. Clint is a graduate of Martin County high school and Stetson University. Recently he has been a strong advocate for the issues facing the St Lucie River having organized several rallies last summer. He is one of the co-founders of the Lounge Series, designed to be an entertaining evening for people under 35 in Stuart!

We've also added a part-time position to focus on two of our key mission-related programs: Arts Education and the Court House Cultural Center Galleries. Jennifer Hearn is a graduate of South Fork High School and FAU, majoring in Elementary Education. She has worked with Stuart Art Supply and many of our local artists for years and is an active volunteer in a local Parent Teacher Association.

So, the next time you stop by the Court House Cultural Center, please say "hi" to Jennifer and Clint. They have added a new and refreshing dynamic to our long-standing team... Karen Barnes, Elaine Keller and Judy Walker. Working together with our many volunteers and board members, we can continue the legacy we started in 1980.

The mARTies Awards are recognizing many people who are dedicated to the cultural life of our community. Our profiles this edition feature three of the named award recipients who were honored at the February 13 event.

Jane Davis Doggett: mARTies 2014 Lifetime Achievement in the Arts Award

Jane Davis Doggett, an internationally acclaimed graphic designer, is one of the pioneering women artists to have trained at the Yale School of Art and Architecture during its modernist heyday. Her colorful and comprehensive thematic graphic identity and wayfinding systems now enliven many public complexes, including 40 international airport projects — more than any other designer in the world.

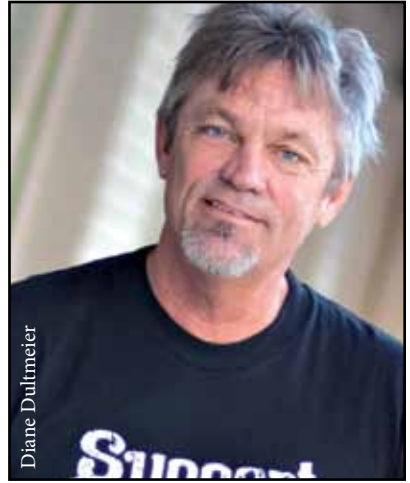

Doggett has received acclaim for her designs on an international scale with her work published in Italy, Japan, Germany, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. In her later years she has returned to her artistic roots, exploring how color, geometry, and literature combine to express philosophically profound truths.

Her work was recently on display at the Elliott Museum with artists Albers and Welliver. Doggett was on the founding board of directors for the Arts Council, and worked diligently to foster arts awareness in our community in the 1980's and really, ever since. She works with the Town of Jupiter Island and their arts-related activities.

Ron Hart:
mARTies 2014
Arts Leadership
Award

Entrepreneur and business owner, music advocate, downtown promoter, musician, and landscaper. Ron Hart's rock-and-roll attitude has shaped his approach to his business and volunteer life. Often referred to as Stuart's Cultural Ambassador, Ron has promoted more than 60 shows on the Riverwalk Stage through the Rockin' Riverwalk Music Series and works closely with both the Downtown Business Association and Stuart Main Street. Staying true to his passions, Ron's current business ventures, Terra Fermata and Earthtones have an eclectic, rocking vibe which adds to the artistic culture of our historic downtown.

Bridget Glass:
mARTies 2014
Excellence in Arts Education
Award

Bridget Glass was born in New York City and moved to South Florida as a teenager where she attended Lincoln Park Academy and earned a Bachelors of Music degree from Palm Beach Atlantic University. She attended Florida Atlantic University as a Masters of Arts Degree candidate. Ms. Glass has been a Music Educator for 9 years and has sung professionally since the age of 16. She is a proud member of the Florida Vocal Association. While choral director at Stuart Middle School she has grown the choral program from 55 students to 146. Among her many accomplishments are having the greatest number of boys enrolled as compared to the middle school choral programs in Martin County. Her students have participated in many community projects and outreach, supporting Music Education throughout the country.

ArtsFest 2014

ArtsFest is the Treasure Coast's most beloved and best-attended event showcasing fine artists hailing from throughout the country in a juried art show, and talented musicians with local and regional followings. Beautiful Memorial Park will be transformed once again into a celebration of the arts.

ArtsFest 2014 promises to bring a new interpretation of the nearly 30 year old event with several new and exciting initiatives. The ArtsFest After Dark kickoff party on Friday, March 14th 7:00 – 11:00 PM will feature live bands, good food and craft beers to get the festival off to a more energetic start this year.

ON MARCH 15 & 16, 2014

*Downtown Stuart will be alive with the arts as ArtsFest
arrives to showcase creativity of all kinds.*

10-7 Saturday
10-5 Sunday

The Local Artists' Tent is a new feature that will give south Florida the ability to showcase all the great artistic talent in the area! This feature is sure to bring some exciting new art into the show!

New food! That's right foodies, ArtsFest 2014 will have a whole new focus on gourmet foods! The food, beer and recreation area centered around our main stage will feature many local restaurants and food trucks serving up the best of the best on the treasure coast from artichokes to authentic Mexican tacos! Of course, in keeping with ArtsFest great tradition there will be plenty of craft beers and fantastic wines! Take a break from shopping, kick back and have a bite to eat with a beer while enjoying a performance from our wonderful entertainment line-up on the big stage. However, the music doesn't stop there; roving musicians will be filling the park with fun and excitement so keep an eye, or ear, open for an impromptu performance while browsing through over 100 artists' booths.

ArtsFest 2014 arrives just in time for St. Patty's Day weekend this year and we have just the thing to get your celebration started properly; Sunday morning Irish Brunch! The stage will be filled with Irish step dancing girls and the Rowdy Micks Irish Band while VIP attendees will be filled with delicious Irish food and beverages! This separate VIP ticket will include: the brunch, park entrance and VIP access all day.

These are just a few examples of the many new and exciting additions to this well established event. ArtsFest 2014 will be the 28th year that the Treasure Coast has come together to celebrate the arts in our area and it is shaping up to be the biggest and best ArtsFest yet!

ArtsFest 2014: Osprey & Mangrove

POSTERS & T-SHIRTS to feature the work of Amber Moran at ArtsFest 2014!

The artwork selected for ArtsFest tells a story about our community. This year a piece was sought that visually expressed the fragile nature of our local ecosystem and the flora and fauna that are dependant upon it. We are very excited to be working with Amber Moran, a young and flourishing local artist who is developing a following.

See her and 100+ other artists at ArtsFest... and buy what inspires you!

Amber Moran: Featured ArtsFest Artist

Amber Moran said: "I am honored and excited to have been asked to be this year's ArtsFest featured artist. I have been passionate about and inspired by both the art world and our natural environment since I was a young girl. I am motivated to show viewers our surroundings here in Florida in a different approach using watercolors and ink, whether it be related to the ocean or in the wild. In this Osprey and Mangrove piece I created for this year's event, I wanted to simply portray a scene we all know well here on the Treasure Coast, and would make us think of home." Amber enjoys studying marine life not only to enhance her artwork but to inspire her boys who already have a love for the ocean to also have a love for coastal conservation as they grow older. Amber lives in Stuart with her husband and two young boys.

TEN WOMEN IN ART: Personal Baggage

At the Court House Cultural Center
through April 11, 2014;
Gallery hours Tues-Fri 10-4, Sat 11-3;
Special ArtsFest Hours, Sat/Sun 10-4

We assume it's best to travel light. Someone has to carry the bags; someone has to store them and they can be unwieldy and hard to move around. Maybe there simply isn't enough room for it all. If you're packing steamer trunks full of baggage physically and metaphorically speaking that could cost you.

Experience, too, can be its own kind of baggage. It is as unique as our genes, our memories, our behaviors, our capacity for humor, folly, wisdom; our latent capacities for courage, cruelty, change and selflessness; our threshold for pain, joy and outrage; our memories, our loves.

TEN WOMEN IN ART are celebrating 30 years as an organization, having had their first exhibit in 1984. Nancy Dillen, Ellen Pavlakos, and Susan Martin are founding members, so the membership has changed through the years. "We've met some wonderful women artists during those thirty years. We've celebrated successes and shared tragedies, both personal and professional. We enjoy one another's company so much that we often find it difficult to discuss the business of the group rather than art. There is a bond, a common passion that unites us, as corny as that sounds. And producing art is a solitary activity so we welcome the shared time together," stated Susan Martin.

New Public Art: Colorado Avenue, Florida Water Bird Sculptures

THE CITY OF STUART is proposing a new public art installation as part of the City of Stuart's Centennial Celebration. Along with private donations, the City has requested funding from the NEA for this project which will commission wildlife artist Geoffrey C. Smith to sculpt six (6) Florida Water Birds. The "Florida Water Bird Sculptures" will welcome residents and visitors to our beautiful waterfront community. The placement of the centerpiece sculpture in the traffic circle at the intersection of Colorado Avenue and Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard will join the three districts: the traditional African American community/East Stuart Main Street, the historic Downtown and the US 1 Corridor. Stay tuned as this artistic project develops!

Enhancing Arts Education:

Through Plein Air Day

Thomas Winter

This third annual event for advanced high school art students is an intensive program with local, professional artists. By taking students into field to study, as so many our most admired artists in history have, they are following in the footsteps of these grand masters.

The Pine School, Clark Advanced Learning Center, Martin County, South Fork and Jensen Beach high schools will in total bring 75 students to this full-day program. Supported with funds from Target and the “State of the Arts” license plate program, this year’s program takes place with our location hosts at Sunlight Ranches and the FL TRAC Tying the arts education program to our “Inside Track” exhibition enables this education program to spread its wings and take on new meaning for the students and artists, alike. Additional in-kind support and product discounts further the reach of our program with credit to Stuart Art Supply.

The Arts Council thanks and recognizes our teaching artists, volunteers and teachers who support this learning opportunity.

Teaching Artists: Lynne Barletta (pastels), Tom Winter (photography), Pamela Hoke (acrylics), Susana Cremin (watercolor), and Tom Prestopnik (drawing).

Volunteers: Sally Browning-Pearson, Kendra Deltano, Jane Wheeler, Debra Alessandra, Roni Bartolini, and Vera Mangold. Teachers: Maria Miele (Pine); John Stiles (Clark); Daniel Gorostiaga and Tracy Canada (JBHS); Tami Conrad and Shelby Power (SFHS); and Sharon Hagin, Brian Johnson and Gary Deaton (MCHS).

2014 MARTIES NAMED AWARD RECIPIENTS

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT IN THE ARTS
JANE DAVIS DOGGETT

EXCELLENCE IN ARTS EDUCATION
BRIDGET GLASS

PHILANTHROPY IN THE ARTS
FRANCES LANGFORD FOUNDATION

ARTS LEADERSHIP
RON HART

Frances Langford Foundation mARTies 2014 Philanthropy in the Arts Award

Following Frances Langford's long standing philanthropic support of our community, the Frances Langford Foundation has invested in many of the same organizations that she funded during her lifetime, such as Florida Oceanographic Society, United Way of Martin County and Martin Memorial Hospital. Her legacy has been carried forward by the trustees of the Frances Langford Foundation, Evans Crary and John Turner, with gifts to the Elliott Museum campaign, Florida Arts & Dance Company, and the Arts Council among others. Ms. Langford's career included acting and singing in more than 30 films.

TERRY BARBER

Nominated by Doug Jewett

Since Terry Barber established his home in Martin County in 2009, he has been a driving force for the arts. Founder of Artists for a Cause, Terry has brought artists of all genres together in various community events. Whether performing opera, jazz or popular favorites, he breathes new life into everything he sings; what the Los Angeles Times calls “performances of great vitality and verve.”

PERFORMING ARTIST

FRANCINE BECKSTEAD

Nominated by Maureen Gawel

Francine Beckstead has volunteered with the Barn Theatre for 14 years. She dedicates countless hours to the Barn, managing the theater, helping with shows, putting on fundraisers, even making food for events. I've worked with Francine for 3 years now and am amazed and humbled by her dedication. Few people demonstrate the dedication to the arts that Francine does.

VOLUNTEER IN THE ARTS

JANE EJAN
BLATT

Nominated by Palm City Art Associates

With a Master's Degree from Columbia University, Jane Blatt taught children with learning disabilities for 32 years. Upon retirement to Martin County, FL she immediately immersed herself in the art community. Jane, painting under the name “Ejan”, has garnered many awards and exhibited in numerous juried shows. Jane is best known for her three dimensional palette knife paintings of birds.

VISUAL ARTIST

MITCH KLOORFAIN

Nominated by Doug Jewett

Not only does he capture the beauty of our surroundings and the moments which mean the most to us as a community, this award-winning photographer regularly shares his knowledge and skill to teach others how to capture their own moments. Every December he donates his time and talent through Help Portrait. Mitch is an asset to our community and an outstanding visual artist.

DIGITAL MEDIA ARTIST

SPENCER BALLANTYNE

Nominated by Marcus Rabb

I have had the absolute pleasure of knowing and working with this young man for the last 8 years at the Pine School. Spencer has been an incredible role model for the hundreds of students he has grown up around during his school career. He's seen his share of leading roles, studied dance, voice and piano, and never ceases to amaze audiences with his positive energy and professionalism.

STUDENT
PERFORMING ARTIST

KEVIN PAUL

Nominated by Terry Barber

Kevin Paul is more than just a triple threat. With exceptional skills as an actor, singer, dancer, pianist and guitarist, I cannot recommend him more highly. President of the Artists 4 A Cause club at the Pine School, Kevin pioneered our "share arts" program, leading peer artists as they connected with youth in an at-risk community. He is committed, enthusiastic, genuine, and warm-hearted.

STUDENT
PERFORMING ARTIST

CHRISTINA PEREZ

Nominated by Gary Deaton

Christina is an exceptional artist. She is currently working on her second level Advanced Placement Art course and is a role model to the other AP art students. She has won multiple awards at art shows and was awarded the most outstanding MCHS Art Student for 2012-13. She is a young woman of exemplary character who has worked for the arts and in volunteer and leadership activities.

STUDENT VISUAL ARTIST

AMANDA WIND

Nominated by Daniel Gorostiaga

I came to know Amanda two years ago when she took one of my classes. Amanda showed great interest in various artists she had not heard of before, and was quick to apply new concepts to her evolving artworks. At the end of this course, Amanda created one final work, "Point of Gravity", which was purchased by the Elliot Museum.

WOMEN SUPPORTING THE ARTS

Women Supporting the Arts Announce 2014 Grant Recipients

SINCE 2004, more than $200,000 has been awarded to artists and arts-related programs by Women Supporting the Arts (WSA). This year grants tallied to just over $17,000. An additional allocation was made to the growing WSA-Public Art Fund bringing that fund to $15,000. WSA-Public Art dollars are being reserved for a future investment in sculpture in a prominent public location. Applications are judged by the members of WSA on the following criteria: value to the community in strengthening the arts; merit of the program, project, scholarship, or internship; increase of public awareness and participation in the arts; and partnerships and collaborations with existing community resources.

Inspired By...

Host Janeen Mason and guest, Tom Bollinger enjoy a funny story at November's event, one of several Cultural Conversations produced by the Arts Council to celebrate the arts for their Patron level members and sponsored by Wilmington Trust.

PRESENTED BY WILMINGTON TRUST, N.A.

Reservations required for all Cultural Conversation Sessions. Seats limited, fees or membership required. Cultural Conversations represents a new concept to tie together our many efforts to engage the community in all things artistic with a goal to inspire greater participation in and a passion for the arts in our community. Through our Cultural Conversations, we intend to provide interesting and evocative dialogue designed around P.L.A.C.E. (people, land, arts, culture and engagement).

A FOND FAREWELL TO INSIDE TRACK

Mary Alonso, widow of artist, Anthony Alonso.

“We were very excited to host the Inside Track exhibition celebrating Martin County’s equestrian roots in Martin County with Payson Park, one of the most respected training facilities in the circuit. In fact, last year’s Kentucky Derby winner Orb trained at Payson Park. This show was a great example of how we, at the Arts Council, try to tie the arts together with our greater community,” noted Nancy Turrell, Executive Director at The Arts Council of Martin County. Several pieces sold during the course of the exhibition as well as Anthony Alonso’s fine art books. Our partnership with Florida Thoroughbred Rehabilitation and Adoptive Care Center brought in many people from the ranches of western Martin County. Florida TRAC received a generous donation from sculptor, Mindy Colton, to assist them in their efforts to care for aging thoroughbreds.

At the Winner’s Circle Dinner: Jim Alonso, Terry Rieger (Diamonds by Terry), Kadee Alonso, Jane Koppe, and Mary Alonso.

At the Winner’s Circle Dinner donated and sponsored by Diamonds by Terry, in support of the equestrian themed exhibition “Inside Track”, the highlight of the evening was when Mary Alonso pulled out Jane Koppe’s (mother of Kadee Alonso) number and she won the beautiful pendant, created by Terry Rieger. According to the family, this pendant has now become an Alonso family heirloom and will be treasured by all.
